Looking for a new activity for the kids that can help end prostate cancer? What about fundraising kid-style? Help kids show their support for dads, grandpas, uncles, and the others in their lives who are fighting prostate cancer. Whether they want to involve their school, community, sports team, or just themselves with friends and family, we’ve put together a few ideas to help get you started.

ZERO Out Prostate Cancer!

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>SUPERHERO ENVELOPES</th>
<th>LEMONADE STAND</th>
<th>ICE CREAM SOCIAL</th>
<th>SILLY OUTFIT DAY</th>
<th>HOST A CAR WASH</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Ask your mom or dad for envelopes. Draw and color in your version of a Superhero fighting cancer. Give them to your family members and ask them to fill the envelope with money or a check.</td>
<td>Ask mom or dad to help make lemonade. Put a table out at a high-traffic area, like a park on a Saturday or at a clubhouse or football game (make sure you get permission). Charge people for their cup of lemonade.</td>
<td>Get an assortment of ice creams and toppings. After lunch, allow students and teachers to buy an ice cream sundae. Put that money towards your fundraising.</td>
<td>Pick a fun theme, like Pajama Day or Crazy Clashing Day, and ask students to pay $5 to wear their silliest outfit or best PJs! Offer a prize for best outfit!</td>
<td>Talk to your school or a local business about using their parking lot. Host a car wash to raise some dough for dads!</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

WRAP-A-GIFT

Birthdays and other holidays are always in need of wrapped presents. Offer to wrap your family’s presents for a donation to your fundraising campaign!

PENNY WARS

Each team in the Penny War gets a jar. Collect as many pennies as possible in yours and put as many non-pennies in others. Pennies mean positive points; other coins mean negative. To win your team needs to have the most points at the end.

YARD WORK

Turn those tips from mowing your neighbor’s lawn into a charitable donation. Grab your friends and clean the whole neighborhood!

SOCIAL MEDIA

Share the Run/Walk with your friends and rally them to encourage those in their life to fundraise.

Other Kid-friendly Fundraising Ideas:

- Chores for Donations
- Make and sell Greeting Cards
- Ask for your birthday presents to be donations to your fundraising
- Bake Sale
- Silly String Shootout
- Principal Pie in the Face
- Guess How Many Jelly Beans Jar
- Crazy Hat Contest
- Kids Art Show
- Loose Change Collection

For more information and fundraising ideas, email info@zerocancer.org or visit zerocancer.org.
Have a Girl or Boy Scout? Getting your troop involved at your local ZERO Prostate Cancer Run/Walk is a great way to support the men in your life while earning badges.

Volunteering is a lot of fun! Learn more about volunteer opportunities to make a difference, and share your ideas with us at info@zerocancer.org!

Have a young fundraising star on your hands? We’d love to hear about your kid’s fundraiser and share the inspiration with others!

Did you know babies could join the fight against prostate cancer? Visit ZERO’s store to get your youngest one outfitted with a ZERO Prostate Cancer onesie, available in pink or blue.

And remember...Follow all the rules of your school, church, or local business. Thank all of your donors and participants with handwritten notes, drawings, or emails. But most of all, HAVE FUN!

For more information and fundraising ideas, email info@zerocancer.org or visit zerocancer.org.