

KID-FRIENDLY FUNDRAISING IDEAS

Looking for a new activity for the kids that can help end prostate cancer? What about fundraising kid-style? Help kids show their support for dads, grandpas, uncles, and the others in their lives who are fighting prostate cancer. Whether they want to involve their school, community, sports team, or just themselves with friends and family, we've put together a few ideas to help get you started..

ZERO Out Prostate Cancer!

SUPERHERO ENVELOPES Ask your mom or dad for envelopes. Draw and color in your version of a Superhero fighting cancer. Give them to your family members and ask them to fill the envelope with money or a check.	LEMONADE STAND Ask mom or dad to help make lemonade. Put a table out at a high-traffic area, like a park on a Saturday or at a clubhouse or football game (make sure you get permission). Charge people for their cup of lemonade.	ICE CREAM SOCIAL Get an assortment of ice creams and toppings. After lunch, allow students and teachers to buy an ice cream sundae. Put that money towards your fundraising. WRAP-A-GIFT Birthdays and other holidays are always in need of wrapped presents. Offer to wrap your family's presents for a donation to your fundraising campaign!	SILLY OUTFIT DAY Pick a fun theme, like Pajama Day or Crazy Clashing Day, and ask students to pay $5 to wear their silliest outfit or best PJs! Offer a prize for best outfit! PENNY WARS Each team in the Penny War gets a jar. Collect as many pennies as possible in yours and put as many non-pennies in others. Pennies mean positive points; other coins mean negative. To win your team needs to have the most points at the end.	HOST A CAR WASH Talk to your school or a local business about using their parking lot. Host a car wash to raise some dough for dads! YARD WORK Turn those tips from mowing your neighbor's lawn into a charitable donation. Grab your friends and clean the whole neighborhood! SOCIAL MEDIA Share the Run/Walk with your friends and rally them to encourage those in their life to fundraise.
--	---	---	---	--

Other Kid-friendly Fundraising Ideas:

- Chores for Donations
- Bake Sale
- Crazy Hat Contest
- Make and sell Greeting Cards
- Silly String Shootout
- Kids Art Show
- Ask for your birthday presents to be donations to your fundraising
- Principal Pie in the Face
- Loose Change Collection
- Guess How Many Jelly Beans Jar

Have a Girl or Boy Scout? Getting your troop involved at your local ZERO Prostate Cancer Run/Walk is a great way to support the men in your life while earning badges.

Have a young fundraising star on your hands?

We'd love to hear about your kid's fundraiser and share the inspiration with others!

Did you know babies could join the fight against prostate cancer?

Visit ZERO's store to get your youngest one outfitted with a ZERO Prostate Cancer onesie, available in pink or blue.

Volunteering is a lot of fun!

Learn more about volunteer opportunities to make a difference, and share your ideas with us at info@zercancer.org!

And remember...Follow all the rules of your school, church, or local business. Thank all of your donors and participants with handwritten notes, drawings, or emails. But most of all, HAVE FUN!